

BROUGHT TO YOU BY THE SOCIAL ACTION COMMITTEE OF CONGREGATION SHOMREI TORAH

THE HEALING POWER OF FORGIVENESS

SUNDAY, FEBRUARY 25TH
3:00 - 5:30 PM

In Jewish tradition, there is no such thing as perpetual punishment or permanent exile. As a people, we believe in the power and practice of teshuvah; the ability for each one of us to repent, atone, and return with a "clean slate".

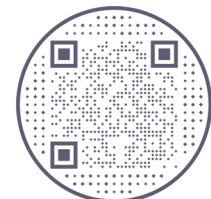

Don't miss this rare opportunity to hear from two incredible women who were impacted by violent crime in their past and their brave journey through shame and healing. Joining them will be four formerly incarcerated men who were convicted and served long sentences for their crimes. You will experience how they were reformed and redeemed and how both victim and perpetrator can find forgiveness and peace.

Contains sensitive content, recommended for adults. Available in person & online. No charge, donations accepted.

The following short video will open your hearts and hopefully inspire you to join us: www.youtube.com/watch?v=FVxjuTkWOiE
